MISSION STATEMENT

ABOUT AECRE

The International Association of Attorneys and Executives in Corporate Real Estate (AECRE) is a not-for-profit association that provides its members with a senior-level network of executives and attorneys who share professional concerns in the field of corporate real estate. AECRE has a unique membership profile consisting of corporate real estate executives, in-house corporate real estate counsel, outside real estate counsel, and executives in real estate services with ten to over thirty years of experience. Membership is sponsored and by invitation only.

AECRE is an excellent source of information, education, and state-of-the-art practices. Some of the benefits of AECRE membership are highlighted below.

Educational Meetings - Member activities include an annual conference, in the spring at desirable destinations, featuring a multi-faceted educational program, frequent networking opportunities, and numerous social events. Another meeting, of equal caliber, is held in the autumn in a major metropolitan area.

The association is now offering quarterly one-hour webinars, free to members, on a variety of topics pertinent to our industry. Opportunities for members to attend networking luncheons, in some cities, are available throughout the year.

Meetings feature panels, workshops, and roundtable settings. The agendas are assembled through a robust Program Committee. Care is taken to balance the topics as well as the mix of education, networking and social activities.

Corporate Real Estate and The Law® - Our newsletter consists of educational articles and updates on current legal developments as well as member and association information. Members are invited to submit educative articles for publication and new members are profiled in each issue.

Membership Directory – Available only to members, the on-line membership directory features member information including the individual expertise of each member.

www.aecre.org – A vital resource for members, our website offers a section for members-only. The Bulletin Board allows members to post questions and news that is distributed by email to the membership. Past newsletters are archived on the site.

"Friends of AECRE" on LinkedIn – AECRE has an active presence on our LinkedIn discussion group. Join with us there to keep tabs on the pulse of your profession from a variety of sources.

CLE Credits - AECRE applies to states represented in the membership for CLE accreditation of our educational programs. Attorneys can earn enough credits to satisfy the yearly requirements in most states.

Annual dues are $380 for regular members and $190 for non profits and academic members. Additional members from organizations with one current member, at the regular rate, are priced at $200 per year, resulting in a reduced average rate for all. Please submit your membership application to:
